Welcome & Announcements Hazel Davidson R.E. – Miami Presbyterian

Call to Worship Hazel Davidson R.E. – Miami Presbyterian

To you, O GOD, we lift up the spirit of our whole selves. O God, we trust unashamedly in you; seeking that you be not ashamed of us; may we begin our Lenten journey together in right relationships; teach us. Show us. Guide us in your paths. Grow us to know your ways more clearly. You are the God of our salvation and the Sustainer of good relations. For you we wait. May integrity, a clean conscience, and upright living preserve us. Amen.

Glory to God Hymn #370 – This Is My Father's World

We are called to confess Hazel Davidson R.E. – Miami Presbyterian

Siblings in Christ, in our daily lives we need the gift of the season of Lent. These 40 days can help us restore right relationships with God and with others. This is a fine time to focus, clear our hearts and minds of distractions, and re-orient and restore our whole selves. May God be with us. Let us pray:

We confess our sins to God and one another

Creating and Renewing God. In this Lenten season we each need the opportunity to clear our eyes of the glaze of indifference and apathy. Help us get our minds off distractions, obsessions and self-pity so that we don't feel helpless. Help us to start over. Re-orient head and heart so that we may fill our whole selves with life-affirming activities and thoughts.

May we be in right relationship with you and all your creation and join siblings in the Church universal in over-coming violence, hunger, and injustice. May we each find courage and clarity to assist each of us in works of justice and compassion which make daily life bearable for many. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Time for silent, personal confession

We receive the assurance of pardon

Brothers and Sisters, God hears our prayers and, even in our human frailty, promises to be with us in the wilderness times. Observe, find comfort, and offer with courage to restore and build relationships among God's people. Experience a new and renewed sense of hope. Amen.

Glori Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Hazel Davidson R.E. – Miami Presbyterian

As in days of old, Creator God, we come to look for your signs of covenant promises. Like the rainbow days of Noah, we see and know your signs and hear your voice again directing us to places of preparation and transformation in our lives and in our world. Thank you God, for your covenant signs in this season of Lent. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us, this day, our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Call to stewardship

Psalm 25:10 reminds us, "All the paths of God are steadfast love and faithfulness for those who keep God's covenant and decrees." Our church's ministries are extensions of God's love and faithfulness made possible through the generous giving of our time, energy, and money. With love let us offer our gifts to God.

Please continue to send your tithes and offerings via mail or electronically to your church family as the Holy Spirit calls you and you are able.

We ask for blessings on our tithes and offerings

God of all bounty and blessing, receive our lives and our gifts to be bounty and blessings to you, our church, and the world. Amen.
