Glory to God Hymn #226 – There in God’s Garden

We are called to confess

If God kept track of sins, who would stand a chance? But with God, there is forgiveness. May God hear our request for mercy.

We confess our sins to God and one another

You have called us blessed, O God, and washed us in the waters of grace. You have called us a family, O God, and bound us by the presence of your Spirit. Forgive us, O Holy One, when we try to forget that we belong to you: when we bind ourselves to the illusion of independence, the myth of supremacy, or the fear of what might happen if we placed our trust in something beyond ourselves. Forgive us, O Holy One, and by your forgiveness, free us from all that keeps us bound.

Time for silent, personal confession

We receive the assurance of pardon

Siblings in Christ do not lose heart. We are being renewed day by day through the grace of Christ extended to us. Thanks be to God!

All: Thanks be to God!

Message for the Young at Heart (Video)WE PROCLAIM GOD'S GOOD NEWS*We Pray Together, the Prayer of the Day

Once, dear God, we could hear you walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze. Now, you call across the distance, "Where are you?" And we echo back the same question, "Where are you?" You wait and watch for us; we wait and watch for you. Help us to see beyond the temporary to the eternal so that we do not lose heart. Through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, help us to trust that our frailty is received into your hospitable house in the heavens. Renew us day by day until we come again into your presence, where the weight of your glory lifts us in grace and light. In Christ, we pray. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us, this day, our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Call to stewardship

Who are Christ's brothers and sisters? Those who do the will of God. Loving God, loving neighbor, we share what we have as members of the household of Christ.

DoxologyWe ask for blessings on our tithes and offerings

In the spirit of faith, Great God, we thank you for the opportunity to give tithes and offerings, to participate in extending your grace to more and more people, and to give all glory to you. Amen.

We Affirm Our Faith Together

The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church's mission. His human life involves the church in the common life of all people. His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being. His suffering makes the church sensitive to all human suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need. His crucifixion discloses to the church God's judgment on the inhumanity that marks human relations, and the awful consequences of the church's own complicity in injustice. In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God's renewal of human life in society and of God's victory over all wrong. The church follows this pattern in the form of its life and in the method of its action. So, to live and serve is to confess Christ as Lord.
