Call to Worship

Leader: When the people of God were hungry,

People: God rained manna upon them, and they ate until they were full.

Leader: When the people of God are hungry,

People: God calls us to taste the goodness of God’s gifts, and to share our bread with one another.

Leader: Let us worship the One who is the Bread of Life,

All: and watch for a glimpse of the heavenly banquet.

Glory to God Hymn #318 – In Christ There Is No East or West

We are called to confess

Let us confess our sin together, for we have all fallen short of the glory of God.

We confess our sins to God and one another

God, you have called us to live lives worthy of the calling to which we have been called. But we confess to you and each other that we have not always spoken the truth in love; we have not always made every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Forgive us and, by your grace, help us to grow in every way into him who is our head, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Time for silent, personal confession

We receive the assurance of pardon

Siblings in Christ, the promise of our faith is that whoever turns to Jesus Christ will never hunger for forgiveness and that which gives life to the world. That is a promise of joy and of peace, and I invite you to share that peace with one another always.

WE PROCLAIM GOD'S GOOD NEWS

We Pray Together, the Prayer of the Day

Giver of life, every day you rain down manna from heaven so that we can eat the bread of angels. Turn our complaints into gratitude, that we, as a church, may mature into the body of the risen Christ given for the life of the world. Amen.

Sharing Joys & Concerns

Prayers of the People/The Lord's Prayer (Please use debts and debtors)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us, this day, our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Call to stewardship

Each of us has been given grace according to the measure of Christ's gift. Let us give a measure of what has already been given to us.

We ask for blessings on our tithes and offerings

Loving God, as you fed your people in the wilderness, use our gifts, time, and talents as the manna to meet the hungers of the world in which we live. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

We Affirm Our Faith Together

The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church's mission. His human life involves the church in the common life of all people. His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being.

His suffering makes the church sensitive to all human suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need. His crucifixion discloses to the church God's judgment on the inhumanity that marks human relations, and the awful consequences of the church's own complicity in injustice. In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God's renewal of human life in society and of God's victory over all wrong. The church follows this pattern in the form of its life and in the method of its action. So, to live and serve is to confess Christ as Lord.

Words of Institution

We will partake the elements together.

Prayer of Thanksgiving after Communion

Holy Spirit, you have filled us with your life. Christ our Savior, you have embraced us in your love. God our Mother, you have fed us with your grace. Now send us out into your beloved world to share your life, your love, your grace with all. Blessing and honor and glory to you, holy, holy, holy Lord. Amen.

WE RESPOND AND GO IN GOD'S NAME

Glory to God Hymn #69 – I, the Lord of Sea and Sky

Charge & Benediction

Closing Response

"Go ye now in peace and know that the love of God will guide you...Feel his presence here beside you, showing you the way...go ye now in peace, go ye now in peace."
