We are called to confess

In faithful prayer there is power to save the sick; anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore, let us confess our sins and pray for one another so that we may be healed.

We confess our sins to God and one another

God, our strength, and savior, you know our great transgressions, our hidden faults, our secret sins. With our hands we grasp at power; with our feet we stumble into evil; with our eyes we look out for ourselves. Forgive us, gracious God, and lead us in your holy way of life and love and peace, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Time for silent, personal confession

We receive the assurance of pardon

Beloved in Christ, know that you are God’s own and that through divine love you are freed to begin anew the work of living together in compassionate community.

WE PROCLAIM GOD’S GOOD NEWS

We Pray Together, the Prayer of the Day

God of courage, you gave Esther the strength to speak out and the intelligence she needed to save her people. Help us to believe that you are still present and active in this world and that your grace remains as an everlasting force in our lives. In Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

Prayers of the People/The Lord's Prayer (Please use debts and debtors)

Sharing of Joys & Concerns

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on Earth as it is in heaven. Give us, this day, our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Call to stewardship

Having recognized the many gifts we bring and receive from one another, let us share what we have in gratitude.

We ask for blessings on our tithes and offerings

May these tangible gifts and all the intangible gifts we share among us make known to the world that God is within us and among us.
